Risa Sloves and Mark Joachim

Dr. Sloves is 1 of only 10 Chiropractic Physicians in Connecticut who is Board Certified in Pediatric and Maternity Care including certifications in the Webster and Bagnell Breech Techniques and she also has certifications in scoliosis care. Dr. Joachim is the first and only physician in CT with Advanced Certification in The BioSET Allergy Elimination Technique, a non-invasive, drug-free and shot-free health care method that can permanently eliminate food and environmental allergies.

Wellness services offered: Chiropractic care for all ages, specialized care for pre- and post-natal and pediatrics, BioSET Allergy Elimination Technique, spinal decompression with Axiom DRX 9000, acupuncture, nutrition and enzyme therapy, weight loss.

Areas of specialty: pre- and post-natal care (fertility, back pain, sciatica, headaches and neck pain, carpal tunnel syndrome, helping babies avoid breech presentation or provide chiropractic care to aid them in turning into a better position for labor and delivery); pediatric care for newborns through teens; natural treatment/elimination of food, environmental and chemical allergies and chronic conditions such as eczema, sinusitis, gastrointestinal disorders, migraines, thyroid conditions, candida infections, chronic fatigue, hormonal issues.

Philosophy of healing: We have been dedicated to continually enhancing our education to provide state-of-the-art treatment that really no other chiropractic office in CT provides and we are committed to helping families achieve optimal health through many different natural health care methods.
